

Dr. Rickey Warner

260 Swan Lake Drive
Jackson, MS 39212
(601)214-7399

rickey.warner08@yahoo.com

23 years of professional service in academics, private and public colleges and universities.

Professional Profile

- Administrator and Teaching Faculty
- 23 years of teaching experience.
- AACSB Academically Qualified in International Business and Entrepreneurship, with Marketing.
- Seasoned Educator skillful in the classroom and Blackboard
- Research Interest- International Business, Entrepreneurship, and Consumer Issues.

Education, Honors, and Certifications

- Certificate in Crisis Leadership in Higher Education, Harvard Kennedy School of Executive Education, Harvard University, Boston, Massachusetts, 2009.
- Post-Doctorate in International Business and Entrepreneurship from the University of Florida at Gainesville, 2008.
- Doctorate Degree in International Affairs & Development, specialty- Int'l Business, Clark-Atlanta University in Atlanta, GA., 1999.
- Holds the Masters Degree in Economics, Atlanta University, Atlanta, Georgia. 1978.
- Holds the Bachelors Degree in Business Administration, Southern University. 1972.
- Sigma Beta Delta Business Honors Society

Selected Employment:

Talladega College, Dean of Business Division and Associate Professor, Talladega, Alabama, 2007-Present.

Stillman College, Dean of Business Division and Assistant Professor, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, 2004-2007.

Alcorn State University, Assistant Professor, MBA Program, Natchez, Mississippi-1997-2001.

Mississippi Valley State University, Instructor, Business Administration Department, Itta Bena, Mississippi, 1988-1997.

Key Qualifications

- Post-Doctorate Certification in International Business and Entrepreneurship,

AACSB Academically Qualified, with terminal qualifications in International Business and Entrepreneurship

Teaching Experience in private and public colleges

Post-Doctorate with Graduate Coursework

Research Interest in International Business Marketing and Consumer Issues

Versatile using technology to get the work done

University of Florida at Gainesville, an AACSB Approved Certification Program.

- 18 Credit Hours of Graduate Marketing Courses.
- Research stream in progress- International Business, Entrepreneurship and Consumer Issues.
- A seasoned and experienced classroom teacher.
- Skilled in the use of blackboard and state-of-the-art technology.

Research, Grants, and Funded Projects

The following research in currently is progress:

- Marketing Eco-Tourism in Global Markets, target- International or Global Marketing Journal, Summer 2009.
- Patterns of Consumer Decision-making Since 9/11, target- Consumer Journal, Fall 2009.
- Accomplishments
- Mini-Grant Recipient at Stillman College for 3 consecutive years.
- Secured private and government sponsored internships for Business Students.
- Conducted campus and community workshops, seminars and trainings.
- Upgraded the current Business Division Curriculum.
- Integrated Entrepreneurship into the Business Curriculum.

Computer Skills

- Software (IBM and MAC environments): Microsoft Windows® and DOS, WordPerfect, Lotus123, Microsoft Word, PageMaker, AutoCAD, Books in Print, Baker & Taylor Links, Bibbase
- *Working knowledge of the Internet
- System installations and debugging; terminal/printer operations

Professional Affiliations

*American Marketing Association
American Association of University Professors*

References

- Dr. Ebere Oriaku, Business Chair and Professor, Elizabeth City State University, Elizabeth City, N.C. 27909, (252)335-3311.
- Mr. Ekow Hayford, Assistant Professor, Talladega College, Talladega, AL 35160, (205)554-1659.
- Mr. Hayes Grooms, Assistant Professor, Talladega College, Talladega, AL 35160, (256)761-6296.