LIVE CLASS: Tuesday/Thursday 9:40-11:20am in Heavener 150
OFFICE HOURS: Tuesday/Thursday 11:30-1:00pm in Gerson 315

Purpose and Objectives:

This is an introductory course intended to develop an understanding of the environment, role, and basic principles of financial accounting, primarily from the standpoint of the user of financial information. The course is not directed towards the needs of any particular major. The objectives of this course are as follows:

1. Identify the information conveyed in each of the four basic financial statements and the way that it is used by different decision makers.
2. Identify what constitutes a business transaction and apply transaction analysis to record the effects of those transactions.
3. Prepare basic financial statements based upon Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.
4. Describe common financial statement relationships used in financial analysis.

Text: Harrison, Horngren & Thomas, Financial Accounting, 11th edition, Pearson.

The purchase options for the textbook are as follows:

UF Bookstore

- Full package with value edition of textbook, e-text, and access to my accounting lab
- E-text and access code to my accounting lab

Direct from Pearson

- E-text and access code to my accounting lab
- value edition of textbook (print upgrade)
- access code to my accounting lab

My Accounting Lab

This course requires the use of My Accounting Lab from Pearson publishing company. All quizzes will be assigned and graded through My Accounting Lab (accessed through the canvas class website).

Registering for MAL:

1. Sign in to Canvas and enter the ACG2021 Canvas course.
2. Select MyLab & Mastering in Course Navigation pane to the left, and then select any course link on the Pearson page.
3. Go to Get Access to Your Pearson Course Content.
4. Accept the End-User License Agreement and Privacy Policy.

If you previously linked your Canvas & Pearson accounts, go directly to Pearson payment page. Skip to step 6.

5. To link your Canvas and Pearson accounts, do one of the following:

- If you already have a Pearson account, enter your username and password.

Tip: To look up your Pearson account, select Forgot your username or password?

- If you do not have a Pearson account, select Create and follow the prompts to create a new account.

6. To get access to your Pearson course, do one of the following:
 - Select Access Code, enter your access code, and select Finish.
 - Under “Use a Credit Card or PayPal”, select the button with the applicable price and enter your payment information.
7. When the registration is complete, the You’re Done page appears and you get a confirmation email. You can close the You’re Done page and return to your Canvas course. From now on, when you select any of the MyLab & Mastering links in your Canvas course, your MyLab & Mastering course immediately opens in a new tab.

Note: In the future, it is recommended you enter your MyLab & Mastering course through Canvas. Need Help? See Help for MyLab & Mastering with Canvas.

Contact Pearson 24/7 Technical Support. After providing your name and email to the agent, make sure to tell them you access your course through Canvas. They will need the detail of your course, which can be found by clicking MyLab/Mastering from the navigation bar, then clicking the Diagnostics link at the top of the page. This information may be downloaded and attached to your chat. Please always provide an incident number to your professor if your issue remains unresolved.

Prerequisite:

Sophomore standing or completion of 24 semester hours.

How to Succeed in this Course

In order to succeed in this course you must keep up with the material. There is a lot of material covered in this course and the concepts in each chapter build on the concepts discussed in the previous chapter. You should plan on spending between 8 and 12 hours a week in addition to lecture preparing for the course. The following steps will ensure you perform to the best of your ability:

1. Read the assigned chapter and take notes on the chapter prior to lecture
2. Complete the pre-work assigned for each chapter prior to lecture (accessed by clicking modules/do homework in canvas)
3. Attend or watch lecture (Do not let yourself get behind if you are watching lecture online)
4. After lecture complete the applicable homework using the notes you completed in step 1 above and additional study plan problems for any concepts that you need more practice. (accessed by clicking modules/do homework in canvas)
5. Attend office hours to review any issues from the homework.
6. Take the assigned quiz (or if no quiz is assigned for the chapter complete extra practice problems in the study plan)

Getting Assistance and Staying in Touch:

There is an announcement section within the class website. This will be the vehicle by which all announcements will be made. You are expected to check the class website on a DAILY basis and watch lecture in a timely manner to check for any new announcements and to check the calendar to make sure due dates have not changed. Any change in office hours, exam dates, quiz dates, or class schedule will be announced in the announcement section of the class website. You are responsible for all announcements posted on the class website.

Feedback

In most cases, you can expect:

- A response to your email from the instructor or a Student Assistant within 2 business days.
- Grades to be posted within 3 days of taking your exam.

Office Hours

My office hours are listed at the top of this syllabus and are held in Gerson 315. In addition to my office hours, each student assistant will hold office hours. You may attend the office hours of any of the student assistants. Contact the class website for a list of the office hours held by each student assistant.

The student assistants will hold both actual and virtual office hours. The class website includes instructions for accessing virtual office hours. Virtual office hours allow you to receive help from one of the student assistants remotely. The schedule of student assistant office hours located on the class website denotes which office hours are actual office hours (held in Gerson 125) or virtual office hours.

Accessing the Course Website:

You must use Google Chrome to access the canvas class website

Go to <https://lss.at.ufl.edu/> and click on the canvas login.

Then: 1. Log in using your GatorLink Username and password

2. Choose ACG 2021 from the list of courses

Note: You must be registered for this course to be allowed access to the course materials. It may take 24-48 hours for the website to be updated with the latest enrollment data from the Registrar's Office.

Therefore, if you have just added the course and are denied access, try again in 24 hours.

Lectures:

The class format is live lectures for those students wishing to attend the live lecture, space permitting, and online lectures for those students that want to watch a taped version of the live lecture. There may be a few times during the semester where there is not a live lecture due to Professor Goslinga attending educational seminars. During those limited times, the lecture may be prerecorded ahead of time.

You are expected to attend or watch all lectures according to the schedule outlined below. The lecture notes cannot and should not be a substitute for class attendance. The lecture notes do not include all information discussed in class. Lecture notes are available on the class web site. You should print out a copy of the lecture notes or be able to view the lecture notes on your computer while you are watching lecture. Students are expected to read the assigned chapters before the related topics are discussed in class, this will aid in your understanding of the material we will be discussing in class. Students that attend the live lecture are encouraged to ask questions throughout the lecture.

For issues with technical difficulties related to the video lectures please contact the Technology Assistance Center.

My Accounting Lab

This course requires the use of My Accounting Lab from Pearson publishing company. All quizzes will be assigned and graded through My Accounting Lab (accessed through the canvas class website).

Pre-Work and Homework:

Pre-work and homework will be assigned in My Accounting Lab. Pre-work and homework are assigned a due date to keep you on track in the course, but can be accessed for extra review after the due date (pre-work and homework are not graded). You can access both the pre-work and homework once in the canvas class website by clicking on The “Mylab and Mastering” link and then clicking on “My Accounting Lab Course Home.” Pre-work and homework will not be graded, but should be completed prior to taking the quiz.

In addition to assigned homework, My Accounting Lab provides many additional problems and resources to help with any areas of concern. It is suggested that you use the study plan to do any additional problems.

Quizzes

1. There will be one syllabus quiz worth 5 points due by Thursday, August 31st. The syllabus quiz is assigned and must be completed in canvas.
2. There will be a total of 7 chapter quizzes assigned during the semester in My Accounting Lab worth 5 points each. There will be a quiz for the following chapters: 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9.
3. Chapter quizzes are assigned the following lecture day after the chapter is completed in class. If the chapter is completed early (earlier than the outline listed at the end of the syllabus) the quiz will not be moved up, but if the chapter takes longer than scheduled the quiz will be moved back. For chapters completed on Tuesday the quiz will be scheduled for the following Thursday and for chapters completed on Thursday the quiz will be scheduled the following Tuesday.
4. Based on the course schedule at the end of the syllabus the tentative quiz dates are as follows:

Chapter 2 Quiz: Tuesday September 5th

Chapter 3 Quiz: Tuesday September 12th

Chapter 5 Quiz: Tuesday September 19th

Chapter 6 Quiz: Tuesday October 3rd

Chapter 7 Quiz: Tuesday October 10th

Chapter 8 Quiz: Tuesday October 17th

Chapter 9 Quiz: Tuesday November 7th

5. All chapter quizzes will be assigned in My Accounting Lab. Please note that since the quizzes are scheduled in My Accounting Lab, not canvas, they will NOT be listed in the canvas calendar. Write down the above quiz dates to ensure you do not miss a quiz.**
6. You can access the chapter quiz from anywhere with internet access. You are required to access a quiz on the date assigned. Having a computer that cannot access My Accounting Lab or a computer without internet access is not a valid excuse for missing a quiz.
7. Each chapter quiz will be open for a 24 hour period from 12:01 a.m. to 11:59 p.m. on the assigned date (i.e. you will be able to take the quiz at any time during the 24 hour period.) You have unlimited time to complete the quiz during the period it is open.
8. Make sure you only press the submit button when you have answered all questions. Once you press the submit button your quiz will be graded and it cannot be re-opened. Please note, in order for your quiz to be graded you must press the submit button when you are finished with your quiz. If you close out of the browser without pressing the submit button your quiz will not be graded and you will not have another opportunity to take the quiz.
9. If you are ill and unable to take a quiz on the assigned date you must bring medical documentation to the My Accounting Lab student assistant's office hours (or send via email to ACG2021MAL@warrington.ufl.edu) within one week of the quiz date. Once medical documentation is received you will be granted access to take the quiz.
10. If you know you will miss a quiz for an excused reason (as determined at the instructor's discretion) you must bring documentation of the absence to the My Accounting Lab student assistant (or send via email to ACG2021MAL@warrington.ufl.edu) at least one week PRIOR TO the quiz date. The My Accounting Lab student assistant will work with you to set up a time to take the quiz.
11. Quizzes must be completed on the assigned date. Quizzes will only be reopened if you missed the quiz for a valid medical excuse once medical documentation is received by the teaching assistant.
12. You must follow the instructions included in each question and format your answer as requested in the instructions. Any answer formatted incorrectly will be marked incorrect (i.e. if the instructions state to round the answer to two decimal places and instead of answering 95.41 you answer 95.4 the answer is incorrect.) See the tutorial "How to enter answers" in My Accounting Lab.
13. If you cannot access My Accounting Lab within the canvas site for any reason during a scheduled quiz you must contact Pearson support. When you contact Pearson support you will be assigned an incident number. Once you receive the incident number you will need to contact the My Accounting Lab student assistant at ACG2021MAL@warrington.ufl.edu. You must include the incident number from Pearson in your email. If you do not have an incident number that was assigned prior to the quiz due date you will not be granted access to take the quiz.
14. You may review your quiz in my accounting lab after the quiz due date has passed. To review your quiz you need to click on the "results" tab on the right menu bar.
15. Any questions regarding your quiz or the grade received on a quiz must be sent to the My Accounting Lab student assistant at ACG2021MAL@warrington.ufl.edu within 1 day of the quiz due date. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

Examinations and other Matters:

1. Only students that are officially registered for the course at the time of the exam may sit for the exam.
2. Students registered for sections 02DG will take an assembly exam on campus in a location determined by the first letter of your last name (locations to be posted on the class website prior to the exam at the bottom of the course files page).

3. Students registered for section 02DH will take their exam online through ProctorU. Please see ProctorU instructions on the class website.
4. For students taking exams through ProctorU please note that exam appointment times are only available from 6:00-8:00 pm (Eastern Standard Time) on the date of the scheduled exam. If you are not located in the Eastern Standard time zone, you should check the appointment times offered for the exam prior to the end of drop/add. Available exam times will not be adjusted according to the time zone that you are located.
5. The policies in this syllabus do not change throughout the term. However, circumstances may require changes in exam dates. These will be announced in lecture and announcements on the class website only. You will receive a zero if you miss an exam/quiz because of an exam date change or any other unexcused reason.
6. All examinations will be comprehensive. Examination questions can relate to materials presented in class, assigned readings, and homework problems.
7. Examinations are scheduled at times set aside by the University for that purpose and have priority over regular classes and examinations scheduled at the same times. There should be little, if any, reason for a valid conflict with these times. In some cases, other courses offer make-ups that allow conflicts to be avoided. If you believe you have a valid conflict, notify your instructor at least 10 days before the examination date. If an examination is missed without a valid, documented excuse, you will receive a grade of zero for the exam. There will be no exceptions to this requirement. More detail on acceptable reasons for absence and UF policies on attendance are found <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>
4. Excused absences from exams are at the discretion of the course instructor. Events such as weddings, family vacations and reunions, cruises, conventions and other student organization events, job interviews and club sports will NOT be considered excused absences. Consistent with University policies, accommodations for religious observances will not include time for travel. Excused absences due to illness require a doctor's note dated within one day of the exam date (one day before or after) and must be received within one week of the exam.
5. Any student who misses Exam 1 or Exam 2 due to illness will receive an excused absence once medical documentation is received. There are no makeup exams given. Instead of a makeup exam, the student's other two exam grades will be averaged and will be counted in place of the missed exam.
6. If a student is sick and decides to take the exam an excused absence cannot be given retroactively (i.e. once a grade is received it cannot be removed) consistent with University policy. Therefore, you should not take an exam if you are sick.
7. If a student misses Exam 3 due to a documented illness, or other excused reason, and has completed all other course requirements, the student will receive an incomplete in the class and will be required to make up the exam at the end of the next semester. If a student misses Exam 3 and has an excused absence from either exam 1 or exam 2 an incomplete is not available under University policy and the student must request a medical withdrawal from the course.
8. Examination locations will be announced during lecture and posted on the class web site at the bottom of the course files page.
9. Calculators are not required. The exam computation will consist of simple arithmetic that can certainly be done by a University of Florida student, but can create significant time pressure. If you wish to use a calculator on exams, it must be non-programmable. Use of a programmable calculator will be considered a violation of the honor code.
10. The official University of Florida "Gator 1" identification card must be presented at each examination without exception. Any student who takes an exam without a valid picture ID will receive a grade of zero.
11. Students will only be allowed to have a non-programmable calculator, their Gator 1 ID card, and pencils at each exam. Any other belongings that are taken to the exam must be left at the front of the room. The course instructor and proctors will not be responsible for any belongings taken to the exam. For this reason, you should only bring the items listed above.

12. No student will be allowed to enter the exam room more than thirty (30) minutes after the exam begins.
13. For on campus students all exams will consist of multiple choice questions and require answers on a scantron. You will have two hours to complete each exam. Only answers included on your scantron will be graded and you will not be allowed extra time to bubble in your answers after the two hour period has ended. Any student who continues to bubble their scantron after time is called will lose an automatic 12 points.
14. For students taking the exam through ProctorU all exams will consist of multiple choice questions and require an answer be selected. You will have two hours to complete each exam. You will be allowed two blank pages of scrap paper for the exam that must be torn up in front of the proctor at the end of the exam. At the end of two hours the exam will close. Only answers selected prior to the exam closing will be graded.
15. Students may review their exams during the student assistants' office hours (actual office hours for those students that took their exam on campus and virtual office hours for those students that took their exam through ProctorU) for one week following the date the exam grades are posted. The instructor will post an announcement on the class website to notify students when the exam/scantron review period begins and ends. The reviews are intended to enhance the understanding of students and not for grade negotiations.

Grading:

Your grade will be based solely on the following:

Syllabus Quiz	5
My Accounting Lab Quizzes	35
Exam 1 (Tuesday, September 26 8:20-10:20 PM)	120
Exam 2 (Tuesday, October 24, 8:20-10:20 PM)	120
Exam 3 (Tuesday, December 5, 8:20-10:20 PM)	120
	400

Final course grades will be based on the following numeric scale indicating the minimum number of total course points needed to achieve each letter grade (Course grades are based on total points, not percentages):

Minimum Points	Course Grade
360	A
348	B+
320	B
308	C+
280	C
268	D+

Course Grade: Grades will be determined solely by your performance on the exams and quizzes. Grades are not subject to negotiation. For the avoidance of doubts, being close (e.g., 1 point away from) to the next higher grade is NOT a relevant consideration. Keep this in mind, as I will not respond to emails raising these and similar “sympathy evoking” concerns. Extra credit in this course is not available.

Grade Values: The grade-point value per credit hour associated with each letter grade is assigned by the Office of the University Registrar: A = 4.0, B+ = 3.33, B = 3.0, C+ = 2.33, C = 2.0, D+ 1.33, D = 1.0, D- = .67, E = 0.0. For more information visit: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

University Policies

Attendance

Although attendance may not be taken at every class, students are expected to attend and participate in every class. Students should prepare for all classes even if they miss and are responsible for material covered in their absence. Students may not attend a class unless they are officially registered for the course. The Fisher School of Accounting does not approve requests to audit its courses. Students who do not attend at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which they are registered, and who have not contacted the School to indicate their intent, may be dropped from the course. The instructor adheres to all UF attendance policies.

Accommodating Students with Disabilities

Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive, therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations and must abide by the time periods set forth by the Dean of Students Office.

Please follow the time requirements set by the DRC for submitting accommodated testing requests. If the timing requirements set by the DRC are not met the instructor cannot provide testing accommodation for the student.

Academic Misconduct

Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>. Cheating undermines the efforts of all honest students, and tolerance of cheating can damage the reputation of the University and Fisher School. Accordingly, we expect that all students will display academic integrity throughout the course. The penalties for academic dishonesty are severe and will be enforced in this class.

Coping with Stress

The following is an excerpt from a memo sent out to faculty by the Dean of Students:

During stressful periods of time, there is an increased tendency for students to isolate and alienate themselves from other, and many students will need help and encouragement in seeking assistance.

The University and the Gainesville community provide a variety of counseling and support services to assist students. A complete list of counseling & support services can be found on the Dean of Students Web site at: <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/supportservices/campuscounseling.php>

UMatter, We Care

Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.

Complaints

Should you have issues with your experience in this course that cannot be resolved with the instructor, department, or program, please visit <http://www.distance.ufl.edu/student-complaints> to submit a complaint.

Civility

This course will be conducted in a courteous and professional manner. Inappropriate classroom behavior of any form will not be tolerated. At the instructor's discretion, students acting in an uncivil manner will receive a grade reduction commensurate with the infraction. Students can be withdrawn from the course for excessive unacceptable behavior.

Evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>

Caveat to Potential Accounting Majors:

Students interested in pursuing an accounting major should be aware that a "B" in ACG 2021 is a prerequisite to almost all upper-division courses in accounting and to admission to the Fisher School of Accounting. For non-accounting majors, a passing grade of "D" or better in ACG 2021 is a prerequisite for ACG 2071.

Other Matters:

1. Any student who drops ACG 2021 after the drop/add period will have the lowest priority for registering in ACG 2021 the next semester.
8. ACG 2021 is not available on an audit or S/U basis.
9. Pay attention to the examination dates and schedule your outside activities to avoid any conflicts with these dates. The examination dates take precedence over all outside activities. This policy will be strictly enforced.

Examination Dates:

September 26, Tuesday	8:20PM-10:20PM
October 24, Tuesday	8:20PM-10:20PM
December 5, Tuesday	8:20PM-10:20 PM

Key Drop Dates (Contact the University Calendar):

Friday, August 25— Deadline to withdraw and receive full refund

Monday November 20— Deadline to drop by College Petition without receiving a failing grade.

Disclaimer This syllabus represents my current plans and objectives. As we go through the semester, those plans may need to change to enhance the class learning opportunity. Such changes, communicated through the Announcements on the Course Website, are not unusual and should be expected.
