Allison McCarthy honored as UF Outstanding Young Alumni

Fisher School of Accounting Alumna Allison McCarthy (BSAc ’98, MAcc ’98) was one of the recipients of the University of Florida’s Outstanding Young Alumni Awards. The Outstanding Young Alumni Award, established by UF’s Alumni Association, recognizes alumni ages 35 or younger who have distinguished themselves in their profession and community.

Allison earned a bachelor’s and master’s degree from the Fisher School of Accounting in 1998, and holds a Juris Doctorate from Duke University. She is a Partner at Holland & Knight, one of the 30 largest law firms in the country. Based in the firm’s Fort Lauderdale office, Allison practices in the areas of commercial real estate and commercial lending. She has developed a specialized practice in representing clients in connection with the acquisition, ground lease, financing, development, construction, operation, leasing, and disposition of hotels and resorts and mixed-use projects with a hospitality component.
