Alumnus Stuart R. Morris (M.Acc ‘89) Appointed to Junior Achievement of South Florida Board of Directors

Fisher School of Accounting Alumnus Stuart R. Morris (M.Acc ‘89), Founding Partner of Morris Law Group, has been named to the Board of Directors of Junior Achievement of South Florida.

Junior Achievement (JA) is a non-profit organization providing a series of business, economics, free-enterprise and life skills programs to enhance the education of young people and prepare them to succeed in a global economy. In the 2011 school year, JA reached approximately 48,000 students. JA Worldwide, through international offices, reaches approximately seven million students per year.

Stuart R. Morris founded his own law firm, which later became the Morris Law Group, in 1991. Morris Law Group is a wills, trusts, and estate planning boutique law firm that practices exclusively in estate and gift tax planning; wills and trusts; business structuring and succession planning; asset preservation planning; domestic and international tax planning; probate and trust administration; and special needs planning. In addition to being Board Certified by The Florida Bar in wills, trusts and estates, Mr. Morris is a Certified Public Accountant.

Morris Law Group is dedicated to helping individuals and families preserve their wealth for future generations, maximizing inheritances, and minimizing taxes. Morris Law Group has achieved an AV® Peer Review Rating, the highest rating afforded, from Martindale-Hubbell. The firm has four offices strategically located throughout South Florida in Boca Raton, Aventura, Weston, and West Palm Beach to provide convenient service to clients in the Tri-County area and from across the country.
