Hull Barrett Welcomes Brian S. Coursey

Brian S. Coursey joins Hull Barrett, PC as an associate in the firm’s Augusta, Georgia office.

Augusta, GA (PRWEB) June 28, 2010 -- Hull Barrett, PC is pleased to announce that Brian S. Coursey (http://hullbarrett.com/attorneys/bcoursey.html) has joined the firm as an associate in its Augusta, Georgia office. Brian will practice primarily in the areas of taxation, estate planning, probate, as well as business and corporate law, including employee benefits. Brian will also assist in general civil litigation matters, with an emphasis on employment law. Prior to joining Hull Barrett, Brian clerked for the Honorable Lisa Godbey Wood of the Southern District of Georgia and also worked in Atlanta at the law firm of Mazursky Constantine, LLC.

“Brian is an exceptional lawyer that brings experience, keen intellect and a sound business judgment,” remarked managing partner Doug Batchelor (http://hullbarrett.com/attorneys/dbatchelor.html). “We are pleased that he has returned to his hometown of Augusta and chosen Hull Barrett to continue his career. We are confident that Brian will earn the trust of our clients, old and new, and provide outstanding legal service.”

Brian received his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in 2006, and his B.B.A. in accounting, magna cum laude, from Augusta State University in 2001. Brian also received his M.Acc. from the University of Florida’s Fisher School of Accounting. In addition to being a member of the State Bar of Georgia, Brian is also a licensed Certified Public Accountant in the State of Florida.
