Henry Moorhead (MBA `82) has been named the new chief financial officer for Metro Development Group, a regional builder responsible for more than 50 communities throughout Central Florida.

Moorhead comes from CNL Commercial Finance Inc., a $1.4 billion commercial real estate lender in Orlando. He also was manager of finance for Seminole Electric Cooperative Inc. in Tampa for 15 years.

He received a master's degree in business administration from the University of Florida in Gainesville as well as a bachelor's degree from the University of North Florida in Jacksonville.

Founded four years ago, Metro Development is a $200 million company the developed more than 9,000 home sites in nearly 40 communities last year. The company also specializes in land acquisition, zoning and permitting.

Among the projects Metro is working on is Hidden River, a 325-home community off Chancey Road in southeast Pasco County near Zephyrhills.