Joshua Craft (BABA ’03) joins Florida Farm Bureau staff

Joshua Craft has joined the Agricultural Policy Division at Florida Farm Bureau Federation as assistant director. Craft will be the staff person working with aquaculture, vegetable and sod advisory committees as well as being the point person for pesticides and food safety. His responsibilities also include building relationships with County Farm Bureau leaders, regulatory agencies and other farm organizations.

Joshua is a graduate of the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in agribusiness. He lives in Gainesville.

The Florida Farm Bureau Federation is the state's largest general-interest agricultural association with about 144,000 member-families statewide. Headquartered in Gainesville, the Federation is an independent, non-profit agricultural organization. More information about Florida Farm Bureau is available on the organization's website, http://FloridaFarmBureau.org.
