FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
January 14, 2008

Zimmerman, Kiser, & Sutcliffe’s Attorney, Sarah Lindquist Serves the Community

Orlando, FL—Sarah A. Lindquist, an attorney with the law firm of Zimmerman, Kiser, and Sutcliffe, P.A. has been giving back to the community by participating in “Justice Teaching” which is a Florida Supreme Court program that places a legal professional with every elementary, middle, and high school in the state of Florida. Ms. Lindquist works once a month with the fourth grade at Andover Elementary. Ms. Lindquist has students participate in an interactive Bill of Rights activity along with a mock Supreme Court case based on a real case chosen by the Florida Supreme Court where students act the roles of Appellate and Supreme Court Justices.

Ms. Lindquist’s areas of concentration include Commercial Litigation and Creditors’ Rights/Bankruptcy practice groups. Her practice includes the representation of financial institutions, banks, insurance companies, construction contractors and subcontractors, business owners and other corporate clients. Ms. Lindquist received her B.S. in Finance at the University of Florida and graduated with high honors and earned her J.D. degree from Florida State University School of Law. She is a member of the Florida Bar Association, as well as the Orange County Bar Association.

Zimmerman, Kiser and Sutcliffe is a full service law firm specializing in the areas of Arbitration & Mediation, Banking & Finance, Corporate, Creditors’ Rights & Bankruptcy, Estate & Trust Planning, Litigation, Probate, Real Estate, Tax and Workers’ Compensation law. ZKS represents clients throughout the State of Florida. For more information on the firm including attorneys’ biographies, visit the ZKS website at www.zklawfirm.com.

###

This press release is intended to provide information, but not to provide legal advice regarding the subject matter. The hiring of a lawyer is an important decision that should not be based solely on public relations or advertisements. Before you hire a lawyer, ask us to send you free written information about our qualifications and experience.