Marlin Hutchens
Market Vice President, Store Operations
Walgreens

Marlin Hutchens is a market vice president overseeing central Florida store operations for Walgreens, the nation’s largest drugstore chain based in Deerfield, Ill.

A native of St. Cloud, Minn., Hutchens earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration from Aquinas College in Grand Rapids, Mich. He also earned an M.M. degree in retail excellence from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn. In addition, Hutchens completed the strategic planning and management in retail program at Babson College in Wellesley, Mass.

He started his career with Walgreens in 1972 as a service clerk. He became store manager in 1978 and was promoted to district manager in 1989 and operations vice president in 2003. Hutchens was named to his current position as market vice president in Orlando, Fla., in 2009.

Hutchens recently served on Florida Governor-elect Rick Scott’s transition team. He also serves on the board of directors of several organizations, including the Florida Retail Federation; the David Miller Center for Retailing at the University of Florida; Junior Achievement of Orlando; and the Orlando Heart Association.

Hutchens is an Eagle Scout and enjoys golf, boating and gardening. He and his wife, Linda, have two adult children (Hailey and Paul) and reside in Orlando.

Walgreens (www.walgreens.com) is the nation’s largest drugstore chain with fiscal 2010 sales of $67.3 billion. The company operates 7,655 drugstores in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. Each day, Walgreens provides nearly 6 million customers the most convenient, multichannel access to consumer goods and services and trusted, cost-effective pharmacy, health and wellness services and advice in communities across America. Walgreens scope of pharmacy services includes retail, specialty, infusion, medical facility and mail service, along with pharmacy benefit solutions and respiratory services. These services improve health outcomes and lower costs for payers including employers, managed care organizations, health systems, pharmacy benefit managers and the public sector. Walgreens Take Care Health Systems subsidiary is the largest and most comprehensive manager of worksite health centers and in-store convenient care clinics, with more than 700 locations throughout the country.
