

Daniel R. Byrnes, CCIM, MSRE
Assistant Vice President
THOMAS D. WOOD & COMPANY
MORTGAGE BANKERS

Thomas D. Wood and Company is a commercial mortgage banking firm, established in 1974, with four offices in Florida. Serving as an Assistant Vice President, Dan is responsible for providing clients with advice regarding the lending industry and securing both debt and equity for clients' commercial real estate needs through a variety of lending sources including Life Insurance Companies, Banks, Credit Unions, private money and large institutional sources. After graduating from the University of Florida with a BSBA in Finance and an MS in Real Estate, he spent three years with a local firm involved in both the financing and development of commercial real estate. Being an active alum, Dan serves as the "Central Florida Captain" for the UF-FARE Program (Friends & Alumni of Real Estate). Dan also serves on the Board for CCIM Central District as part of University Alliance Committee.

Licenses & Accreditations:

CCIM, Licensed Mortgage Broker, Licensed Real Estate Broker, UF Hall of Fame, Florida Blue Key

Thomas D. Wood and Company is an independently owned, leading commercial mortgage banking firm in the southeast. Thomas D. Wood and Company has correspondent relationships with fourteen major life insurance companies, in addition to Wall Street. Thomas D. Wood and Company's servicing portfolio is now approaching one billion dollars. This servicing portfolio consists of long-term mortgages on a variety of commercial properties located throughout the state of Florida and the United States.