

Thomas McElhinney

(407) 276-2130
tmcelhinney@ufl.edu

Education

University of Florida

Master of Science in Finance

Gainesville, FL

May 2008

University of Central Florida

Bachelor of Science, Finance

Orlando, FL

May 2006

GPA 3.83/4.0

Self funded 80%

Dunn & Bradstreet Business Education Services

Credit and Financial Analysis Certification

June 2007

Relevant Work Experience

HD Supply

Orlando, FL

2006-2007

Credit Risk Analyst

- Learned essential ratio analysis required for credit line establishment
- Developed proficiency in navigating and assessing corporate filings, particularly loan covenants
- Developed method for estimation of private corporation creditworthiness based on industry averages
- Honed written skills to produce concise, efficient and thorough credit recommendations
- Improved spreadsheet skills including classroom training, developed spreadsheet tracking system which enabled management to track analyst performance department wide

Finance Management in Training

- Operational Audit: Learned basic audit methodology and why operational processes are important to profitability
- Branch Inventories: Learned basic inventory methodology and how to efficient test sample items to insure relative aggregate accuracy
- Assisted with Sarbanes Oxley Compliance: Developed understanding of the process which management uses to ensure compliance

CRI International

Boca Raton, FL

2005-2006

Accountant

- Learned basic accounting for private enterprise including expense reports and bank reconciliations
- Developed general business acumen and strategic thought process from directly working for company President

Valencia Community College

Orlando, FL

2004-2005

Statistics Tutor

- Developed communication and explanation skills needed to provide assistance to students

Extracurricular Activities

- Delta Sigma Pi Business Fraternity
 - President- Spring 2006
 - Chancellor – Fall 2005
 - Vice President, Community Service – Spring 2005
- Business Administration College Council- VP of Marketing
- Financial Management Association, Honor Society Member

