

Richard B. Bindler

Bernstein Global Wealth Management

Senior Managing Director, Midwest Private Client Practice

Topic: "The Wealth Management Industry"

Mr. Bindler is a Senior Managing Director in the Chicago office, with oversight responsibility for Bernstein's Midwest Private Client Practice. Previously he was the Managing Director and founder of the firm's Washington D.C. practice. He joined the firm in 1989 as a Financial Advisor in the New York office. In addition to that role, during 1993 he ran the newly created advisor training program; later that year he moved to Chicago to help launch the office there, serving as a Senior Financial Advisor. Before joining the firm, Mr. Bindler worked in the investment management business with Prudential Asset Management Co., beginning in 1983. He earned a B.S. from the University of Florida and an M.B.A. from Boston University.
