

Richard B. England, CFA is a Managing Director-Equities and Principal of the firm and serves as portfolio manager on large cap growth equity portfolios.

Prior to joining the firm in August 2004, Mr. England was with Putnam Investments in Boston, where he was a Senior Portfolio Manager on the Core Growth Equity team. Previously, he was with Aetna Equity Investors.

Mr. England is a graduate of the University of Florida where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree. He received a Master of Business Administration degree from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. Mr. England holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation.