Facebook Names RoomBug as fbFund Finalist

Palo Alto, California – June 1, 2009

RoomBug has been selected as one of fifty global finalists in the latest round of fbFund, Facebook's seed fund and mentorship program with Accel Partners and Founders Fund to help enable talented developers and entrepreneurs to build sustainable businesses on Facebook Platform. fbFund has been in existence since 2007 and has awarded funding to a select number of Facebook applications over the past two years.

When asked about the impact of the fbFund selection, Robert Castellucci, RoomBug co-founder stated, "We are looking forward to bringing RoomBug to communities around the world and this is a big step in the right direction."

fbFund is a fund focused on continuing to create incentives for the development of social and engaging experiences on Facebook Platform and with Facebook Connect.

RoomBug teams up with universities and off-campus communities, allowing students to select future roommates rather than being randomly assigned together. Users can search for roommates by common interest, send messages and refer to lifestyle preferences. For more information, contact us at info@roombug.net
