

Carol Bosshardt

Founder, Bosshardt Realty Services Inc.

"Small Business Growth and Development"

Carol Bosshardt started in real estate in 1976. Her experience as a sales agent with several major franchise names has given her a competitive edge in the real estate market. She graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a Bachelor's of Art in social work and attributes this to her firm's unique approach when dealing with people. In 1993, Carol was a finalist for the State of Florida's entrepreneur of the year award, and in 2001 she won the Paul Harris service award for her long-standing commitment to her community. She serves on numerous boards throughout the state.
