

Robert Tache Assumes Leadership Role with Deloitte

Robert Tache assumed the role of Deloitte's Regional Service Line Leader for International Tax in the Southeast on June 1, 2009. Robert graduated from the University of Florida in May 1988 (BS) and May 1989 (M.Acc.). He started his career at Arthur Andersen LLP, becoming a tax partner in 1999. Robert joined Deloitte Tax LLP in May 2002 as an international tax partner in the Miami office. Robert has served some of Deloitte's largest clients in Florida, including World Fuel Services, Ryder Systems, Seminole Tribe of Florida (aka Hard Rock Café) and others.