

Fisher School of Accounting is new home to Grant Thornton Faculty Fellow

The Fisher School of Accounting is grateful to Stanley Levy of Grant Thornton LLP for his assistance in securing a gift of $75,000 to create the Grant Thornton Term Faculty Fellow Fund in the Fisher School of Accounting. Levy, Southeast Region Managing Partner with the firm, was instrumental in establishing this fellowship, which will be funded with an annual gift of $25,000 for the next three years. Grant Thornton LLP is the U.S. member firm of Grant Thornton International, one of the six global accounting, tax and business advisory organizations. Through member firms in 111 countries, including 50 offices in the United States, the partners of Grant Thornton member firms provide personalized attention and the highest quality service to public and private clients around the globe.

Professor Gary McGill, director of the Fisher School, will use the annual gift of $25,000 to provide summer research and salary support for associate professor, Haijin Lin. She was appointed as the first Grant Thornton Term Faculty Fellow at the University of Florida in August 2005. The School has 17 full-time faculty and, with about half slated to retire by 2009, the School is committed to ensuring that accounting maintains a compelling intellectual and professional presence on campus. Grant Thornton's contribution is an investment in the future of the accounting profession.
