University of Florida

• Largest university in Florida & fourth-largest university in the United States*

• Approximately 50,000 students enrolled annually

• Comprised of 16 Colleges and more than 150 research centers and institutes

*based on number of students, 2006
University of Florida

- Ranked fifth among all universities in Kiplinger's magazine "Top 100 Public Colleges" (2003)

- Member of the Association of American Universities, comprised of the top 62 public and private institutions in North America

- Located in Gainesville, Florida
Faculty

- Awards include a Fields Medal, two Pulitzer Prizes, NASA's top award for research, and Smithsonian Institution's conservation award

- Currently more than 60 Eminent Scholar chairs

- Nearly 60 faculty elections to the National Academy of Sciences, Engineering, or Arts and Sciences, the Institute of Medicine or a counterpart in a foreign nation

- Ranked fourth in The Scientist magazine's "Best Places to Work in Academia" (2005)
Students

• 2007 undergraduate class had an average 4.15 GPA and 1305 SAT score upon entry

• Freshmen retention rate of 94 percent is among the highest in the U.S.

• UF admitted 1,049 International Baccalaureate students for the 2004-2005 academic year; more than any other university in the world
Recreation

• Open spaces, small ponds, picnic areas, shady nooks and an 81-acre wildlife sanctuary that provide opportunities to enjoy Florida's year-round outdoor life

• Numerous courts and playing fields on campus for indoor and outdoor sports

• More than 60 intramural and club sports ranging from archery to weightlifting

• Many nearby recreational lakes and rivers including university-owned Lake Wauburg
Intercollegiate Athletics

• In 2006, UF earned the National Champion title in both football and men’s basketball

• UF annually ranks among the top ten collegiate athletic programs in the nation, according to the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics

• Since 1996, UF has earned team national championship titles in football, women’s tennis, men’s golf, women’s soccer, and men’s basketball
Arts

• Campus musical and theatrical centers host world-class symphony orchestras, Broadway plays, opera and large-scale ballet performances

• Among UF's artistic venues are housed a permanent collection of more than 6,000 original works

• Largest natural history museum in the Southeast

• Two television stations and four radio stations
Warrington College of Business Administration (WCBA)

- Decision & Information Sciences
- Economics
- Finance, Insurance, and Real Estate
- Management
- Marketing
- Fisher School of Accounting
- Hough Graduate School of Business
WCBA History

- Established in 1926, Warrington is one of the oldest programs for business and accounting in the US
- Accredited by AACSB International—The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business in 1929
- In 1935, the College’s first Dean, Walter Matherly, was elected President of the AACSB; in 2000, the College’s current Dean, John Kraft, was elected AACSB Chair
WCBA

• Warrington’s David F. Miller Center for Retailing Education and Research is one of just three university-based retail centers in the country

• Warrington’s Center for International Business Education and Research (CIBER) is one of only 30 designated by the US Department of Education

• Warrington has one of largest specialized master’s programs in the country, offering career advancement opportunities to students who lack the work experience necessary to enter MBA programs
Warrington College of Business
Undergraduate Rankings, 2007
U.S. News & World Report

- Overall ranking: 29th overall and 18th among publics
- Accounting: 12th overall and 7th among publics
- Marketing: 9th overall and 7th among publics
- Finance: 14th overall and 9th among publics
• Overall ranking: 41st overall and 20th among public institutions

• Marketing: 14th overall and 5th among public institutions

• Accounting: 14th overall and 7th among public institutions

• Finance: 24th overall and 9th among publics
UF Internationalization

• Strong diversity of students (racial, gender, socioeconomic, etc.) is a goal of the University of Florida

• Enhancing existing & developing new programs to promote international research, teaching, & study abroad is a goal of UF
UF International Exchange Programs

• More than 100 partnerships
• Monitored by the centralized UF International Center
• Managed by individual academic Colleges
• The Warrington College of Business Administration exchanges the largest number of students at
• UF annually
Information for Business Exchange Students

Information is plentiful; please review the appropriate web sites:

Graduate Business
http://www.cba.ufl.edu/academics/maib/international/

Undergraduate Business
http://www.cba.ufl.edu/upb/intlprograms/international/

UF International Center
http://www.ufic.ufl.edu/ies.htm
Come be a part of our Gator Nation!