Entrepreneurs have always been the lifeblood of the global economy, and those cutting-edge skills are needed now more than ever.

Learning the language of business can be daunting, but it is becoming a necessary skill for career advancement. So how does a non-business student attain business acumen?

The Master of Science in Management Program (MSM) is one of the nation’s few graduate business degrees designed specifically for students without a business education. Students gain a solid business background and strengthen transferrable skills to open up advancement opportunities within their undergraduate major field or the business sector.

Develop real business expertise at one of the nation’s top-ranked public business schools.

DISTINCTIVE PROGRAM:
The Hough Graduate School of Business is one of only two public graduate business schools ranked in the top 15 by U.S. News & World Report that offer a master’s degree in Management.

INCREASE CAREER MOBILITY:
The MSM Program allows graduates maximum flexibility. Whether you are shifting career paths to the business sector or adding business knowledge to your chosen career field, the scope of the MSM Program satisfies both goals.

ELIGIBILITY:
The MSM Program is a generalist graduate business program designed specifically for individuals with non-business academic backgrounds and degrees. No professional work experience is required.

Optimism in the real estate industry is high, and opportunity for growth and success in this promising market is abundant. Resourceful professionals with the proper skills and foresight to capitalize on the market’s condition are in high demand.

The Master of Science in Real Estate Program (MSRE) provides a comprehensive analysis of the real estate industry. Through a unique combination of theory and practice, students learn the methods and strategies employed by the sector’s top practitioners leading to expert knowledge in real estate development, transactions, market analysis and investment. The real estate industry is in the midst of a renaissance. Are you ready to make your mark?

Niches Program:

Graduate real estate programs are uncommon, and those offered by the nation’s top business schools are even scarcer. The MSRE Program is one of only four real estate programs in the country offered by public graduate business schools ranked in the top 40 by U.S. News & World Report.

Specialized Curriculum:

The MSRE Program is completely focused on the real estate industry. Unlike an MBA with a real estate concentration that offers a basic introduction to the area, the MSRE Program provides an in-depth examination of this growing sector. The core courses in this program are focused solely on real estate providing students a uniquely specialized view of the industry.

Industry Access:

The MSRE Program provides exclusive access to the region’s elite real estate executives. Through MSRE's mentoring program, international study tours, speaker series and company visits among other activities, MSRE students are exposed to an unrivaled educational and professional experience.
