Academic Programs available:

Master of Science in Finance (MSc-Finance)

Description
This full-time program offers a rigorous high-level formation together with the clear applied orientation that characterizes our educational approach. Due to its full-time schedule feature dedication should be exclusive, therefore it is meant to graduates of Business Administration or Industrial Civil Engineering aiming to supplement its formation with a specialization in finance.

Master of Science in Marketing (MSc-MKT)

The Master of Marketing is designed to deliver an updated knowledge level in the area of Marketing through the teaching of concepts, models, methods and techniques for the decision making. Immersed within a high academic demanding environment and with a strong practical orientation, the Master in Marketing is dedicated precisely to teach contemporary and emerging marketing strategies as well as offering ways to equip participants with the best preparation to compete effectively in national and global markets.

Master in Economics and Public Affairs (MEPP)

MEPP program is aimed to students with formation in economics who seek to strengthen their understanding of economic, social and political phenomena. This training will contribute to an excellent performance of our graduates in both the corporate and public sectors. This program is being designed to pursue the Ph.D.

Application Requirements:

To apply to MSc- Finance, Marketing and MEPP exchange programs, a student should currently be enrolled in a Master of Science at a university the UAI has in-force exchange program agreement with. Applicants should be nominated by their institutions. Direct applications are disregarded. MSc-Finance and Marketing require prerequisite courses to apply.
