

Highlights of 2005 Financial Times Executive MBA Program Rankings

Press Release – August 25, 2005, Gainesville, FL

In this, just the second year our program has appeared in the FT survey, UF made a strong move up in significant categories, such as faculty research. And, as in 2004, the University of Florida MBA is the only program in the state to appear in the Financial Times EMBA Rankings.

The rank of a school is based on its performance in three areas: 1) Career progress of the alumni (both in terms of salary and rank); 2) School's diversity and international experience it offers; 3) School's intellectual output and research. Here are some of the highlights:
