

Highlights of The Wall Street Journal 2005 MBA Recruiters Rankings

The Wall Street Journal/Harris Interactive Business School Year 4 Survey is based on the opinions of MBA recruiters who hire full-time business-school graduates. WSJ published two separate rankings for U.S. schools, in an attempt to group the 63 North American schools according to where recruiters tend to recruit, which yielded a "national" and a "regional" ranking.

UF's ranking:

- Overall Regional: #27
- Among U.S. Regional Publics: #6
