

Tim Judge Elected to AOM Board of Governors

Gainesville, Fla. – Professor Timothy A. Judge, McKethan–Matherly Eminent Scholar of Management, has been elected to serve on the Academy of Management’s Board of Governors. The board is a nine-person governing body having legal and fiduciary accountability for the Academy of Management (AOM). The board’s primary responsibility is setting the direction and policy development of the Academy of Management.

Founded in 1936 by two professors, the Academy of Management is the oldest and largest scholarly management association in the world, and is the professional home for 17,556 members in 104 countries. It is divided into 24 divisions and interest groups, governed by their own elected officers, which carry out much of the association's work.

Judge’s five-year term will begin with the December 2008 Board meeting.

###

The Warrington College of Business Administration is one of the world’s top-rated public business programs, recognized for excellence by U.S. News & World Report, The Wall Street Journal, Financial Times, The Economist, and Fortune. As part of a Research 1 institution, Warrington is dedicated to a substantial research agenda, in addition to its teaching mission, from the undergraduate to the doctoral level. Warrington educates future business leaders using teamwork that provides opportunities for development of leadership, interpersonal and total management skills; promoting mastery of business functional areas; and fostering the habits and attitudes that constitute a solid research and work ethic.