

FT* Ranks UF MBA in America's Top 10 for Career Progress

Gainesville, Fla. – The UF MBA Program at the Hough Graduate School of Business placed well in the 2009 Financial Times Global MBA Program rankings, released January 26, including garnering the #6 spot in the US for “Career Progress” and #4 “Value.” UF’s first appearance in the FT rankings was in 2006, placing at #96 overall, for a jump of 33 spots in the last three years. UF’s overall ranking among the world’s Top 100 MBA programs is #63, and #15 among public schools. In addition, Florida made a strong showing in significant categories such as Research and Ph.D. rankings, which reflect faculty excellence. For the complete listing of rankings, see our website at: <http://www.floridamba.ufl.edu/rankings.asp>. Here are some of the highlights:

- UF’s overall ranking:
  - Worldwide: #63
    - In the US: #34
    - Among Publics: #15

- Career Progress ranking:
  - Worldwide: #32
    - In the US: #6
    - Among Publics: #2

- Research ranking:
  - Worldwide: #20 (tie)
    - In the US: #19 (tie)
    - Among Publics: #7

- Ph.D ranking:
  - Worldwide: #46
    - In the US: #25
    - Among Publics: #16

- Value ranking:
  - Worldwide: #41
    - In the US: #4
    - Among Publics: #2

###

The Warrington College of Business Administration is one of the world’s top-rated public business programs, recognized for excellence by U.S. News & World Report, The Wall Street Journal, Financial Times, The Economist, and Fortune. As part of a Research 1 institution, Warrington is dedicated to a substantial research agenda, in addition to its teaching mission, from the undergraduate to the doctoral level. Warrington educates future business leaders using teamwork that provides opportunities for development of leadership, interpersonal and total management skills; promoting mastery of business functional areas; and fostering the habits and attitudes that constitute a solid research and work ethic.