

Warrington College of Business Administration
School of Business

Robert A. Shields

On August 12, 2009, Robbie Shields joined the Warrington College of Business Administration as a Graduate Assistant for the School of Business. Robbie is currently in his second year of law school at the University of Florida's Levin College of Law. Prior to pursuing a juris doctorate, Robbie served as an academic advisor at the University of Tennessee's College of Business Administration. Additionally, Robbie taught English abroad and worked as an admissions counselor for the University of South Dakota.

Robbie received his bachelor's degree in history from the University of Tennessee in 2001. As an undergraduate, he discovered a passion for mentoring students while serving as a student advisor for the University of Tennessee's College of Arts and Sciences. Upon graduation, Robbie spent three years working in a variety of places, including the US Virgin Islands, Mexico, and South Dakota. In 2004, he returned to academic advising at the University of Tennessee's College of Business Administration. After serving as an advisor for three years, Robbie enrolled at Tsinghua University in Beijing where he studied Chinese and taught English. In 2008, he left Beijing to continue his studies at the University of Florida.

As the recipient of superb academic advising and career coaching, Robbie knows first-hand the importance of consistently meeting with an advisor. He encourages all students to take advantage of the School's experienced and knowledgeable team of advisors.
