Restricted Electives for Summer & Fall 2018

Choosing electives:

When choosing electives, be sure to determine if you still need restricted electives. All business students who are not General Studies majors must complete 11 credits of either 3/4000 level courses or any level foreign language. This includes courses from outside of the business school (ex. ADV3008, AEC3030c, SPM3012, etc.)

(Below is a partial list of courses. For additional course options, see an advisor in 333 Heavener Hall)

Courses available in Summer 2018:
AEC3030C Effective Oral Communication
CLT3370 Greek & Roman Myths
EDF3110 Human Growth and Development
ENT3003 Principles of Entrepreneurship
SDS3340 Career and Lifespan Planning
AEC3414 Leadership Development
PPE3003 Psychology of Personality
ADV3008—Principles of Advertising

Courses available in Fall 2018:
AEC3414 Leadership Development
MAN3240 Organizations: Structure and Behavior
MAR4403 Sales Management
PPE3003 Psychology of Personality
SDS3340 Career and Lifespan Planning
GEB3035 Effective Career Management