November 1, 2019

IMPORTANT DATES

Thursday-Friday, November 7-8: The J. Michael Cook/Deloitte Student Commons will be closed for the Women in Accounting Symposium. The Commons will reopen to students on Tuesday, November 12.

Monday, November 11: Veterans Day – No Classes

MACC STUDENTS

Monday, November 4, 8:00-8:30am: Priority registration ends for GEB 6229 and courses for the Auditing and Taxation concentrations. Removing the priority restrictions is a manual process, and will take place somewhere between 8:00 and 8:30am. Remember, managing enrollment caps is also a manual process. Some sections may fill up, but have seats released later. If the classes you want are closed, keep checking. If you are receiving an error message that you believe to be inaccurate (like you have not met prereqs), email tracy.thompson@warrington.ufl.edu. For more information on course availability and registration, visit https://warrington.ufl.edu/accounting-current-students/master-of-accounting-resources/course-availability/.

Graduate Awards: The Fisher School of Accounting application for graduate fellowships/awards is available online at https://warrington.ufl.edu/accounting-current-students/forms/. Completing this one application puts the student in consideration for all available endowed scholarships and fellowships. Eligibility and instructions are printed on the application. The deadline for submitting the completed application is February 1, 2020.

Graduate Research Assistants Needed: Professor Robert Knechel is looking to hire graduate accounting students to work approximately 60 hours over the next 4-6 weeks. Responsibilities include downloading documents from public websites, creating an organized file and extracting information from the documents into an excel spreadsheet. Required skills/abilities include basic knowledge of the company’s financial statements, ability to work with excel, ability to organize work and handle working with multiple document types. Internet access is required. Interested students should contact Professor Knechel at w.knechel@warrington.ufl.edu.

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Junior Scholarship Applications: THIRD APPLICATION AVAILABLE. Thanks to the generous contributions of some accounting firms, the Fisher School of Accounting has scholarship programs designed to reward undergraduate students who have distinguished themselves after completion of all required 3000 level accounting courses (ACG 3101 and ACG 3401). There are three applications available. Eligible students are welcome and encouraged to apply to all scholarship programs, but may only be awarded one. See the current applications on our website at https://warrington.ufl.edu/accounting-current-students/forms/. Submit completed applications to 210 Gerson Hall, or email to: larah.doyle@warrington.ufl.edu. Deadline to apply is January 10, 2020.

FSOA STUDENTS

Wednesday, November 6, 6:15pm: Fisher School of Accounting council (FSOAC) invites you to their third GBM in Gerson 126. Guests from the Accounting firm James Moore will be in attendance to give their advice and insight into the life of an accountant. There will be free Publix subs in the Atrium after the event.

Friday, November 8, 10am to 3pm: 13th Annual Women in Accounting Symposium will be held in Gerson Hall. Some of the topics covered will be “How to find your specialty and be good at it,” “If you could go back and give your younger self advice, what would it be?” & “The Language of Success.” The symposium is open to all juniors through graduate Accounting students. RSVP for the Symposium at https://forms.warrington.ufl.edu/alumni/fsoa-women-in-accounting-symposium/.

Saturday, November 9, 10:30am-1:00pm: FSOA Student Council is teaming up with the School to sponsor the annual Alumni BBQ in the J. Michael Cook/Deloitte Student Commons (Gerson Hall). It will be a great way to meet our advisory board members who are leaders in the accounting profession, other alumni, and to grab a free lunch before the kick-off of the UF vs. Vanderbilt football game. We hope to see you there in your orange and blue game day attire!

“Introduction to Law @ Levin.” The Levin College of Law is inviting students to register for this 1-credit course, URP 4905, Class Number 25447, Wednesdays at 3pm on the Levin Law campus. Course Description: Who gets rights? What is feminist legal theory, or critical race theory, and how do they work? What is property and how do you transfer it? Can you contract anything? What does it mean to be harmed, and then “made whole”? What are constitutions? This course is dedicated to exploring these questions by introducing students to legal investigations at the University of Florida’s Levin College of Law.
