Protiviti is a global consulting firm that delivers deep expertise, objective insights, a tailored approach and unparalleled collaboration. Through their network of more than 70 offices in over 20 countries, they team with their clients to provide consulting solutions in finance, technology, operations, data, analytics, governance, risk and internal audit. Stop by and learn what it means to bring your career to life and “Live Protiviti”.

Thursday, January 16, 11:00am-2:30pm: Welcome back to campus from PwC! Make sure to stop by the Gleim Atrium to meet PwC professionals and grab lunch. They look forward to seeing you!

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Junior Scholarship Applications: THERE IS STILL TIME (but not much)! Today is the deadline to apply, however we will accept all applications received by 8:00am on Monday, January 13. Thanks to the generous contributions of some accounting firms, the Fisher School of Accounting has scholarship programs designed to reward undergraduate students who have distinguished themselves after completion of all required 3000 level accounting courses (ACG 3101 and ACG 3401). There are three applications available. Eligible students are welcome and encouraged to apply to all scholarship programs, but may only be awarded one. See the current applications on our website at https://warrington.ufl.edu/accounting-current-students/forms/. Submit completed applications to 210 Gerson Hall, or email to: larah.doyle@warrington.ufl.edu.

GRADUATE STUDENTS
Special Scholarship Opportunity: The Barbara Jean Raskin Award for the Advancement of Women in the Accounting Profession will be one of the graduate awards available to students who are planning on earning their MAcc by August 2021. To be eligible, along with the Application for Graduate Awards, students must have a financial need (as determined by the Office for Student Financial Affairs), must have attended the Women in Accounting Symposium, and must submit an essay discussing the student’s demonstrated commitment to promoting the advancement of women in the accounting profession or how the student intends to address this issue in the future. If you have already submitted an application for graduate awards, you can simply submit the essay to larah.doyle@warrington.ufl.edu. The deadline for this and all other graduate awards is February 1, 2020.

Graduate Awards: The Fisher School of Accounting application for graduate fellowships/awards is available online at https://warrington.ufl.edu/accounting-current-students/forms/. Completing this one short application puts the student in consideration for all available endowed scholarships and fellowships. Awards range in value from $2,500 to $4,000. Eligibility and instructions are printed on the application. The deadline for submitting the completed application is February 1, 2020.

EMPLOYMENT

The Office of the University Controller offers paid student internship opportunities. The University Controller oversees Finance & Accounting at the University of Florida, and provides a wide range of financial operations that support and assist in the creation of a strong fiscal environment for the University. The internships will provide experience and exposure in accounting, process improvement, and compliance projects designed to implement or improve best practices. In addition, other cross-function and miscellaneous duties may be assigned by the Controller. For more information and to apply, please visit http://www.fa.ufl.edu/controller/student-interns/

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

University of Florida students who are interning in the Washington, DC metropolitan area for the Spring 2020 semester, and are registered to receive internship credit, are invited to apply for the DC Gator Club Internship Scholarship. One recipient will be selected for the $1,500 scholarship. After submitting the application form, send your unofficial transcript to scholarships@dcgators.com. Application deadline is January 13, 2020.

FSOA STUDENTS

Monday, January 6, 11:00am-2:00pm: Come out and give back with Grant Thornton! While a card may seem simple, it truly can make an impact on hospitalized kids and their families. Making cards for Cards For Hospitalized Kids (CFHK) is a simple, yet meaningful, way to make a difference in the lives of hospitalized kids. Please come see Grant Thornton tabling in the Gerson Atrium to learn about their firm and opportunities. They will be making cards to send to CFHK, who will then distribute the cards to Children’s Hospitals across the United States in all 50 states, as well as Ronald McDonald Houses.

Tuesday, January 7, 11:00am–2:00pm: EY is back to kick off the spring semester on campus and is encouraging all accounting students to swing by the Gleim Atrium in Gerson Hall. Come and go as you please between classes, grab a bite to eat and mingle with EY representatives. They look forward to kicking off a great semester with you!
Tuesday, January 7, 6:30-8:30pm: PwC will be hosting a welcome back social at the Original American Kitchen (OAK) located at 15 SE 1st Avenue. This is a casual, come as you are drop-in event with plenty to eat and drink! This will be a great opportunity to interact with PwC professionals from a variety of service lines and offices. PwC's welcome back social is open to all accounting students interested in learning more about PwC, their Values, Cultures & People. They hope you can stop in for a few minutes or maybe longer! The PwC team is excited to be back on campus and looking forward to seeing you!

Wednesday, January 8, 10:30am-2:30pm: Get to Know BDO booth will be in the Gleim Atrium. Stop by for a bite to eat, and to speak with their representatives, who will be there to field questions about BDO, available opportunities and their summer leadership program!

Thursday, January 9, 11:30am-2:00pm: Join the Deloitte recruiting team for Menchies in the Gleim Atrium. They look forward to connecting with you on their current and future opportunities at the firm.

ACADEMIC ADVISING – BEGINNING OF TERM

January 3, and January 6-10, 8:30am – 4:00pm: Due to the heavy volume of traffic at the beginning of the semester, we will not be responding to student emails or telephone inquiries during this time. Walk-in advising will be available in 210 Gerson Hall for current UF students needing assistance relating to the Spring 2020 semester.

GRADUATE STUDENTS: Please note drop/add for graduate courses ends on Wednesday, January 8, but walk-in advising will be available through Friday.
