FSOA STUDENTS

MentorGNV looking for student mentors: MentorGNV is an organization that provides mentors – in the form of UF students like you – for the students of Alachua County Public Schools. Their mentors volunteer in local elementary, middle, and high schools each week to serve as a source of continuous support, companionship, and empowerment for students in the local community. Mentors volunteer at their assigned school each week for anywhere from thirty minutes to two hours. MentorGNV will work with your schedule and preferences to assign you a mentoring placement that's right for you. The application opens on December 16 and closes on January 17.

CPA Exam Prep Scholarships: The FICPA Scholarship Foundation has teamed with Gleim CPA Review, Becker Accounting, and UWorld Accounting to offer up to 10 CPA Exam Prep Scholarships. Recipients will be awarded four-part, full-course study materials from FICPA's partner providers. To be eligible, you must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, be an active member of the FICPA, and have an official Notice to Schedule in Florida from NASBA. You must submit the application by December 20 to be considered.

FSOA STUDENTS

Big Idea Gator Business Plan Competition: This competition was created to help students grow their business ideas. It is a four-month competition in the spring where teams of students begin by creating growth-oriented business models. These teams go on to research and produce rough drafts to complete business plans. The top-4 teams compete for a chance to win over $40,000 in prizes. You may enter the competition either as an individual or as part of a team. For more information and to register, visit the competition's webpage. You must register by December 15. The final rounds of the competition will take place in April.

FSU Law Summer for Undergraduates Program: Florida State University's College of Law is now accepting applications for next summer's residential program, which offers students an inside look at law school and the legal profession. The program will take place in-person on the FSU campus from May 29-June 18, 2025. Approximately 60 outstanding undergraduate students will be selected to participate and will join a network of more than 1,800 alumni, many of whom are practicing law in firms, agencies, organizations, and corporations across the country. The application deadline is March 31, but applications will start to be reviewed next month.

ACADEMIC ADVISING – BEGINNING OF TERM

We will offer special advising for the beginning of the term, as outlined below. If you are interested in discussing your schedule, but don't need advising regarding the Spring semester, feel free to call (352) 273-0200 to schedule an appointment. We continue to offer both in-person and virtual advising via Zoom. Please see below for details.

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS - “Walk-In” Academic Advising

Please be aware that during drop/add, we are only able to answer questions regarding the Spring semester.

Friday, January 5, and Monday-Friday, January 8-12: 8:30am–4:00pm

Visit us at Gerson Hall Room 210, or follow the instructions below for remote advising via Zoom.

MACC STUDENTS (INCLUDING 3/2) - "Walk-In" Academic Advising

Please be aware that the MAcc schedule for next academic year has not yet been published, so we are unable to advise on courses to take next year. The schedule will be published in February.

Monday–Wednesday, January 8-10: 8:30am–4:00pm

 (Module 3 Drop/Add ends on Wednesday, January 10.)

Visit us at Gerson Hall Room 210, or follow the instructions below for remote advising via Zoom.

Zoom: Using the link below, join the Walk-In Advising Zoom meeting. Once in the room, you will wait for an advisor to bring you into a breakout room to conduct 1-on-1 academic advising. Students will be advised on a first-come, first-served basis. While waiting for an advisor, you must remain available. If you are not available when the advisor brings you into the breakout room, you will be removed from the meeting, and will need to re-join and wait for an advisor again. Note that any student who logs into the Zoom by 4:00pm will be seen, but no student will be able to join after 4:00pm.
