Overview

The Bill Alcorn Undergraduate Student Center (USC) is a multi-use facility that is designed to serve as a gathering place for students as well as a professional meeting space for university and non-university groups. The USC is equipped with the latest technology and can be configured to serve a wide variety of presentation and meeting needs. The Bill Alcorn Undergraduate Student Center is only available for reservation from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm in order to maintain a secure environment for staff offices located in the facility. Other College/University space should be considered before reserving BRY232 after those hours (i.e. Stuzin 101-104, Stuzin 200, Matherly 224, classrooms, etc.).

To meet the needs of both university and non-university groups, the following guidelines have been established for reserving the USC. Priority for reservations is as follows: 1) Undergraduate Business Professional Development Programs, 2) the Warrington College of Business, 3) groups affiliated with the University of Florida, and 4) organizations not affiliated with the University of Florida.

Hours of Operation

The Bill Alcorn Undergraduate Student Center hours of operation are as follows:
8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday

Organizations Affiliated with the University of Florida

Organizations affiliated with the university will be able to use the USC free-of-charge for special events such as corporate speaking engagements and college-wide committee meetings. The USC is not intended for regular staff meetings or student organization meetings. No food is allowed in the Undergraduate Student Center. There is no additional charge for using the USC’s audiovisual equipment.

Organizations not Affiliated with the University of Florida

Organizations not affiliated with the university can reserve the USC for up to four hours. The planned event must have an educational benefit (e.g., corporate presentation). No food is allowed in the Undergraduate Student Center. The usage fee for non-affiliated organizations is $100. The revenue from these fees will be used for facility maintenance. There is no additional charge for using the USC’s audiovisual equipment.
