

FACULTY MEETING
FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 2003
1:00-3:00 P.M. – 102 STUZIN HALL
AGENDA

Support materials are available in the Associate Dean's
Office for review.

- Minutes from the November 22, 2002 General Faculty Meeting
- Undergraduate Committee:

New Courses:

GEB 3112 – Principles of Entrepreneurship

- ♦ Credits: 4
- ♦ Contact hours: 4 Base hours
- ♦ Description: Practical, hands-on understanding of the stages of entrepreneurial process. Focus on decision-making process within start-up company.
- ♦ Prerequisites: ECO 2023

GEB 4906 – Independent Study

- ♦ Credits: Variable 1-5
- ♦ Contact hours: Variable 1-5, Base hours
- ♦ Grade Option: S/U
- ♦ Description: Reading and/or research in Business Administration

GEB 4930 – Special Topics

- ♦ Credits: Variable 1-6
- ♦ Contact hours: Variable 1-6, Base hours
- ♦ Description: Variable content course providing an opportunity for in-depth study of topics not offered in other courses and topics of special current significance.
- ♦ Prerequisites: Permission of Department

Course Changes:

GEB 4905 – Individual Work

- ♦ Credits: OLD - Variable 1-3
NEW - Variable 1-6
- ♦ Contact Hours: OLD - Variable 1-3
NEW - Variable 1-6

- Dean's Report
- Other Business

GRADUATE FACULTY MEETING
AGENDA

- Minutes from the November 22, 2002 Graduate Faculty Meeting
- Masters Committees:

The Masters Committee has approved the following and requested that it be presented at the College of Business Administration Graduate Faculty Meeting for approval.

New Courses:

FIN 6925 - Asset Management Project

- ♦ Credits: 1 credit/semester; maximum 2
- ♦ Contact Hours: 1
- ♦ Description: Training in optimal portfolio allocation, measuring tracking error/value at risk and performance attribution. Group experience to manage and evaluate portfolios.

FIN 6935 – Finance Professional Speaker Series

- ♦ Credits: 1 credit/semester; maximum 2
- ♦ Contact Hours: 1
- ♦ Description: Presentations by prominent finance professionals. Provide informed perspective on career strategies, opportunities and real life applications.

Course Changes:

REE 6948 – Capstone Seminar and Applied Project

- ♦ Credits: OLD - 4
NEW - 2
- ♦ Contact Hours: OLD - 4 Base
NEW - 2

3. MBA Committee:

Joint MBA Program (between the Warrington College of Business and University of St. Gallen) with concentration in Retail (for approval).

4. PhD Committee:

The PhD Committee has approved the following and requested that these be presented at the College of Business Administration Faculty Meeting for approval.

New Courses:

MAR 7589 – Judgment and Decision Making

- ♦ Credits: 3
- ♦ Contact hours: 3
- ♦ Description: Review literature related to the psychology of judgment and decision making. Discuss normative and descriptive theories of decision-making and the empirical evidence that speaks to those theories.

5. Information Items:

- a) The Master of Arts in Business Administration with a concentration in Real Estate (MABA-RE) will now be offered as a Master of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Real Estate (MSBA-RE)
- b) The MBA “Security Analysis Concentration” has been changed to require that students in this concentration must take all four courses in the following list:
  - FIN 6427 – Measuring and Managing Value
  - FIN 6465 – Financial Statement Analysis
  - FIN 6526 – Portfolio Theory
  - FIN 6438 – Study in Valuation

6. Dean’s Report

7. Other Business