INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS - STUDY ABROAD

OUR MISSION

- Keep students on track for graduation
- Encourage students to study abroad for a semester or an academic year as a component of the academic plan
- Offer students the opportunity to take challenging courses abroad that add value to the WCBA degree
- Design affordable programs in a variety of exciting locations. Encourage participation in UF exchange and WCBA sponsored programs

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS - STUDY ABROAD

- Warrington College of Business Administration is the ONLY college at UF with an international programs office
 - 3 full-time advisors, 1 student assistant
 - Conducted 923 30-minute appointments w/students last year
- International Programs manage FOUR sponsored programs (Madrid, London, Rome, Paris) and 26 exchange programs in Europe, Latin America and Asia
 - Advising
 - Admissions
 - Orientations
 - Enrollment
 - Program management

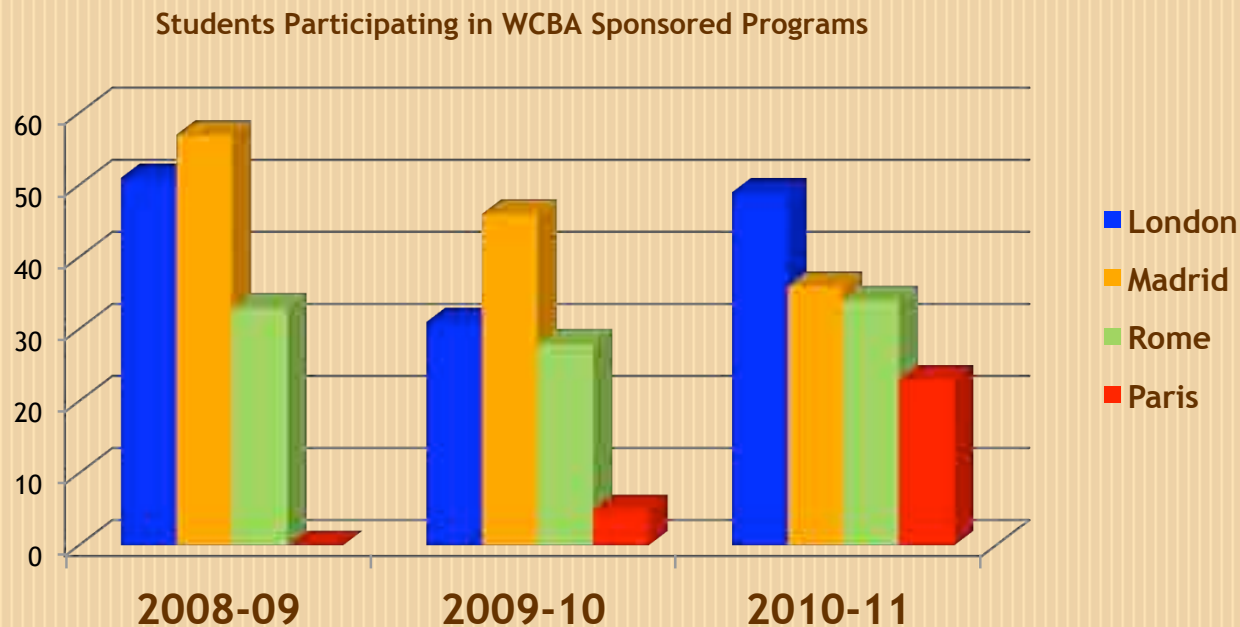

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS - STUDY ABROAD

- WCBA sends approximately 300 undergraduates abroad annually
- International Programs welcomes over 120 international exchange students every year. These students register for approximately 1,156 FTE's of business credits (289 business courses)
- International Programs hosts many events for UF and visiting students during the academic year, including:
 - Global Gathering (fair showcasing exchange students and programs)
 - Photo Contest (fall semester)
 - Campus information sessions
 - Gator Survival Abroad

Enrollment in WCBA Programs - Balancing participation among FOUR locations

UF in London established summer 2005

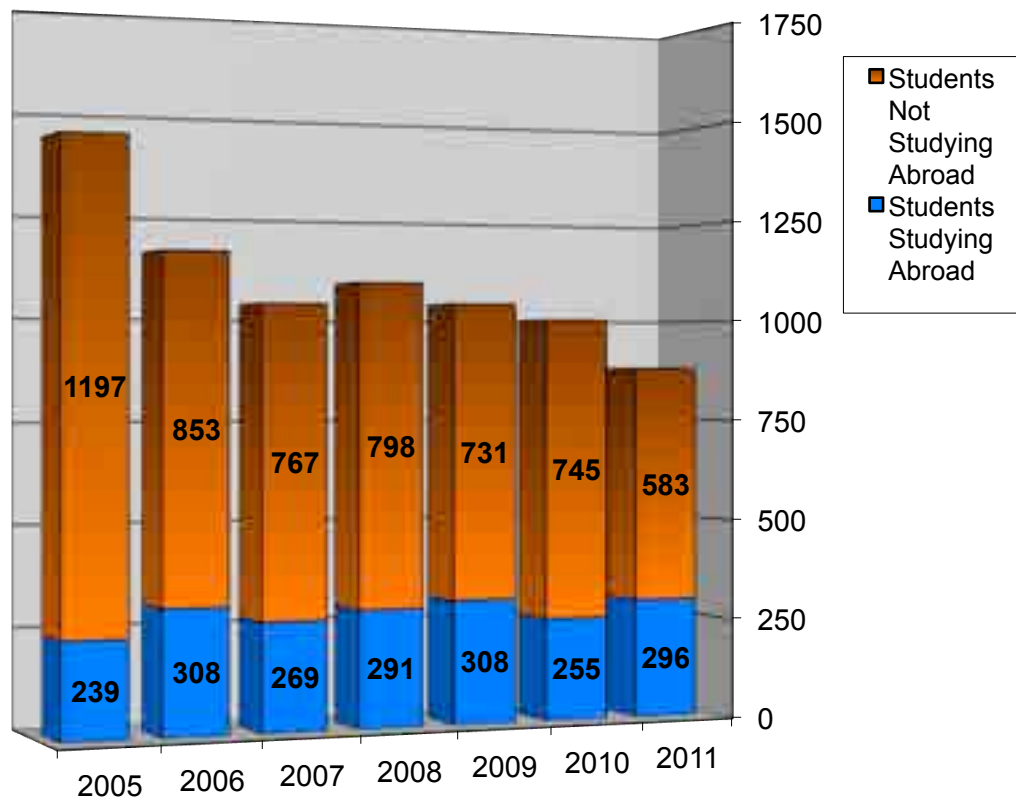

UF in Madrid established fall 2005

UF in Rome established fall 2007

UF in Paris established spring 2010

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS - STUDY ABROAD

The number of BA students studying abroad has remained steady even though undergraduate enrollment has decreased over the past 5 years

Graduating Business Students 2005-2011

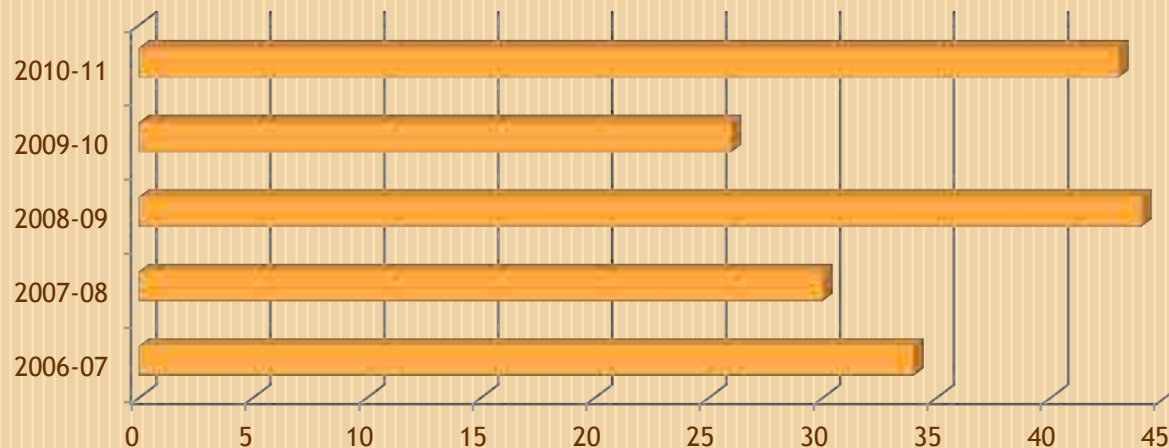

2011 - 33.6 %
of graduating
class studies abroad

2005 - 16.6%
of graduating
class studies abroad

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS - STUDY ABROAD

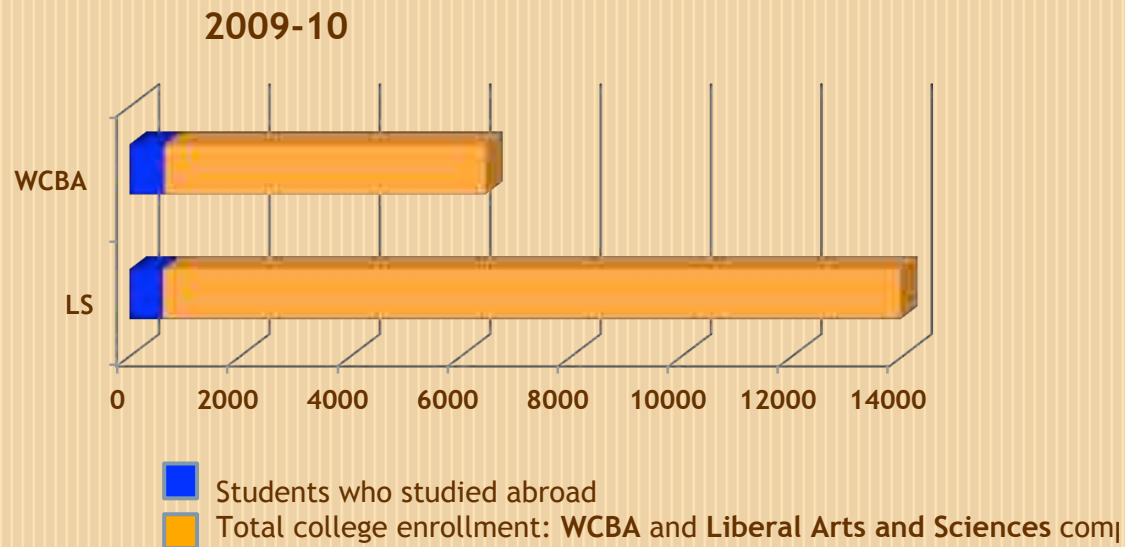

Our goal is to continue increasing the percentage of BA students participating in exchange programs

BA Students Participating in Exchanges

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS - STUDY ABROAD

- 2127* UF students studied abroad in 2009-10
- 30% of those students were from WCBA (635*)
- Below is a graph comparing enrollment size and study abroad participation between WCBA and LS (the largest college at UF)

* Includes graduate and undergraduate students
