

Press release

Bergstrom Center for Real Estate Studies welcomes incoming Chair Todd Jones and Vice Chair Angela Brown to Advisory Board

“I am honored to be able to work with some of the best leaders in the real estate industry.”

Gainesville, FL. – October 9, 2014 – The Bergstrom Center for Real Estate Studies is pleased to announce the appointments of Todd Jones and Angela Brown to Chair and Vice Chair, respectively, of the Center’s Advisory Board.

Jones (BFA ’80) is the Managing Director, Property Tax Services at Cushman & Wakefield. Based in Tampa, Jones oversees the firm’s Southeast property tax practice, and is responsible for the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee.

Jones recently served as the Advisory Board’s Vice Chair.

“I am honored to be able to work with some of the best leaders in the real estate industry, who are as committed as I am to support real estate degree programs at the University of Florida,” Jones said.

Jones will work with the Center and its more than 150 Advisory Board members. Members serve as mentors, speakers, and financial supporters of UF real estate degree programs and courses.

Jones succeeds former Chair Jeff Conn, Principal at Hallmark Partners in Jacksonville.

“I am confident that Todd will continue the momentum to keep the University of Florida one of the premier real estate programs in the country,” Conn said.

Brown (BSBA ’83) is Vice President at Meridian Appraisal Group, Inc., in Winter Springs, Fla. She is responsible for the company’s internal operations including quality control, product development, technological advances, appraisal review and organizational management among other duties.

The Bergstrom Center supports UF real estate courses and degree programs housed within the Warrington College of Business Administration.

Media contact: Nikki Wagner, UF Bergstrom Center, nikki.wagner@warrington.ufl.edu or 352-273-0312