

Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration Area of Specialization: *Agricultural Law (AGL)

Description

The Agricultural Law Center in conjunction with the Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences offers an area of specialization in Agricultural Law. Education in this area provides a foundation for students to better understand the laws and regulations governing professional agricultural related pursuits. Topics in this area include international agricultural agreements, consumer protection, risk management and legal liability. Career opportunities are available in agricultural and manufacturing industries, federal and state agencies, and insurance services. For career information view:

<https://career.ufl.edu/>

Requirements

Students are required to have a minimum of four classes totaling 12 hours from any of the 3000-4000 level courses listed below and maintain a minimum 2.0 Area of Specialization GPA. Be sure to check course prerequisite requirements.

AEB 4123	Agricultural Law
AEB 4085	Agricultural Risk Management and the Law
AEB 4242	International Trade Policy in Agriculture
AEB 4283	International Development Policy
AEB 4424	Human Resource Management

Contact Information

You are always welcome to meet with an Advisor in the School of Business, however, advising specifically related to Agricultural Law is available through the Agricultural Law Center in the College of Agricultural & Life Sciences. For registration, scheduling, and area-specific questions, please contact:

Danielle Shu
dshu@ufl.edu
352-294-7640
1170 McCarty Hall A

Department Website: <http://www.fred.ifas.ufl.edu/>

Minor Option

A minor is available in this Area of Specialization. To complete the minor students must earn 15 credit hours with a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA. More information about the Agricultural and Natural Resource Law minor is available at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/agriculture/minors/agricultural-and-natural-resource-law.aspx>. BUL4310 may count toward the minor, but cannot count toward the area of specialization requirements.