

Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration Area of Specialization: *History (HY)

Description

The history area of specialization exposes students to key historical issues of the world's most important civilizations. Students will develop the critical interpretive skills needed to assess both primary and secondary sources in the complex task of understanding the past. Students will master a set of research skills that help them develop their own historical arguments. Significant emphasis is laid on effective written communication reflected in students' use of evidence and the cogency of their arguments.

Requirements

Students are required to have a minimum of four classes totaling 12 hours from any of the 3000-4000 level courses listed below and maintain a minimum 2.0 Area of Specialization GPA. Be sure to check course prerequisite requirements.

Any 3000 or 4000 AFH, AMH, ASH, EUH, HIS, LAH and WOH courses, excluding 4905 courses.
