

Karli Sellers – UF in London

Major: Marketing | Minor: Communications

Scholarships: Sharif Rahman Summer Scholarship

I studied abroad because...

I wanted to explore the world and step outside of my comfort zone as well as learn about business in a foreign country compared to that of the United States.

My biggest challenge BEFORE studying abroad was...

UF in London is one of the most expensive programs-sorting out my finances was a challenge.

My favorite spot in my host city was...

Camden Market! There was a huge variety of food and merchandise vendors. It was like a giant flea market, and you never knew what you would find!

My typical breakfast while abroad was...

Eggs and British bacon

The weirdest food I tried while abroad was...

Ice cream in a churro cone in Prague

Ask me about...

Getting local and London nightlife

One cool event I experienced while abroad was...

Wimbledon tennis championship!

One habit I picked up while abroad was...

I got very good at planning travel and trips. I am currently working with my friends to develop a spring break itinerary!

The most unforgettable thing that happened to me was...

I met American actor Nestor Carbonell from the TV show Lost in front of the Eiffel Tower in Paris.

Something I took away from my time abroad is...

I feel so much more independent. I challenged myself to step outside my comfort zone and adapt to a new culture in an entirely new country and environment.

The most surprising thing about studying abroad is...

I was most surprised about the diversity in London. London truly is a "melting-pot" of many cultures.

Lastly, I would like to tell you...

Don't be afraid to try new things, meet new people, and step outside of your comfort zone!
